

Arizona Democratic Party Supports Noah Dyer

New Candidate to Receive Full Party Support and Resources

Phoenix, AZ, March 1st, 2017 – The Arizona Democratic Party is pleased to confirm its support for newly announced gubernatorial candidate, Noah Dyer. Though new to the Democratic party, Noah is broadly committed to the core beliefs and policies that Democratic voters and long time party supporters expect from the party's candidates. As such, he will receive training, campaign advice, fundraising support, signature support, and all the other services that the party typically provides its candidates.

Herschel Fink, Interim Executive Director of the party, said, "The purpose of the Arizona Democratic Party has never been to pick and choose winners and losers in primary elections, or to arbitrarily reward longtime party loyalists with greater assistance. The purpose of the party is to support candidates who embody our core belief that Arizona succeeds when everyone gets a fair shot, everyone does their fair share, and everyone plays by the same rules. It is clear that Noah shares this belief."

Barbara Lubin, the party's political director, shared that it was still Noah's responsibility to make use of the party resources available to him, and to convince primary voters that he is the best person to represent the party in the general election. She added that Noah seemed motivated to get started immediately.

For his part, Noah was very enthusiastic about the announcement. "As a registered independent voter for nearly 10 years before joining the Democratic party, I always felt like many of the initiatives I was excited about failed to gain traction. I think this is at least partially because independent voters have a hard time organizing to support their interests. By uniting with the Democratic party, I've already felt more empowered by the community, and I haven't had to give up my moderate stances on the issues facing Arizona. I think other independents will feel the same, even if they choose not to officially change their registration."

About the Arizona Democratic Party

Democrats believe that we're greater together than we are on our own—that Arizona succeeds when everyone gets a fair shot, everyone does their fair share, and everyone plays by the same rules. Our party, is focused on building an economy that lifts up all Arizonans, not just those at the top.

About Noah Dyer

Noah is a thoughtful, socially responsible moderate who has broad experience as an educator, entrepreneur, and small business leader. He believes government transparency is a critical issue for 21st century voters, and has a unique willingness to be open with voters about political and personal matters. As governor, his top priority will be to improve Arizona education. He will also attract jobs, talent, and capital to Arizona. He will achieve this by helping the rest of the country see that in addition to a great weather climate, Arizona also has an advantageous business climate and an inclusive social climate.
